For over 16 years, WIDS has provided expertise and bench strength in curriculum facilitation and development. Our newest Web-based application allows for efficient design and management of programs, courses, and curriculum maps. New features include outcome assessment planning and analysis, a streamlined workflow process, and personalized dashboard.

Now you can see the latest by attending a live WIDS Webinar. Sessions are 45 minutes and include question and answer time at the end. Click on a date below to register:
